

	GCSE ENGLISH (Re-take)
	Qualification Level	GCSE
	Exam Board/ Syllabus	Eduqas
Contact(s)	Mr Gallagher

Why Study This Course?

This course is assessed through examination and is suitable for those pupils who achieved a Grade 3 at GCSE and need a 4 or above for further education purposes. Entry is usually made in November or the following June. This decision will be made in consultation with the teacher. The course includes a Speaking and Listening presentation which is assessed separately but can usually be carried forward from GCSE

Course Assessment Pattern/ Structure

GCSE
Paper 1.	20th Century Literature Reading and Creative Prose Writing	1hr 45m exam	50% of the total	Students demonstrate their critical reading skills based on a literary extract. The exam text will be from the 20th or century e.g. Jamaica Inn by Daphne Du Maurier. They also show their writing skills in a piece of r narrative writing, taken from four choices of task.
Paper 2.	19th and 21st Century Non-Fiction Reading and Transactional/ Persuasive Writing	2hr exam	50% of the total	Students demonstrate their critical reading skills based on two non-fiction texts. The exam texts will be from the 19th century and the 21 st century e.g. a current newspaper article compared with an article from the 1820s. Pupils should study literary non-fiction as well as other writing such as reviews and journalism across these centuries as preparation. They also show their writing skills in the exam by two short non-fiction tasks
Unit 3	Spoken Language	Oral assessment	N/A	Students give a presentation and respond to questions and feedback.

Business & Innovation	English	Expressive Arts & Languages	Humanities	Mathematics	PE	Science
-----------------------	----------------	-----------------------------	------------	-------------	----	---------