

Y12

Education with Theory & Methods

This topic explores sociological explanations of the role of education, achievement by social group, the relationships & processes in schools and the significance of educational policies. There is also an exploration of applying sociological research methods to the study of education.

Families and Households

This topic explores the relationship of the family to social structure and change, gender roles, the nature of childhood, changing patterns & demographic trends in families and households.

Sociology ROADMAP

2021-2022

Year 12 and 13

Y13

The Media

This topic explores sociological explanations of the new media and the significance for understanding the role of media in contemporary society, the relationship between the ownership & control of the media, the process of selection and presentation, media representations and the relationship between the media, their content and presentation, and audiences.

Crime & Deviance with Theory & Methods

This topic explores sociological explanations of crime, deviance, social order and social control, the social distribution of crime, globalisation & crime in contemporary society and crime control, prevention, punishment and victimisation. There will also be an exploration of sociological theories and methods.

