

Behaviour Management Training
Monday 23rd November 2020 & Tuesday 8th December 2020
3:30 – 5:30pm

The training consists of two afternoon sessions and will be delivered by Ann Pugh (Director of the Grand Union Training Partnership)

The course will address common themes of classroom management faced by teachers. Delegates will have the opportunity to revisit classroom management strategies, engage with literature, trial new ideas and share good practice.

This course is ideal for teaching staff wishing to brush up their classroom management skills.

Venue: Online via Zoom

Cost: SWAN SLA members receive 1 free place on either the Autumn or Summer course; £200 per delegate for non-SWAN SLA members

Teaching School Alliance

For more information contact:

teachingschool@sponne.org.uk

Tel: 01327 350284 ext. 251

To book a place click here