

Adam Drake facilitates this training.

Neurodiversity is not a buzzword; it is the reality of the modern classroom. Are your teaching methods reaching every brain in the room? Join us for a hands-on session designed to transform how you support students with neurodiverse needs.

Designed for Teaching Assistants, HLTAs, Teachers, School Leaders and SENCOs.

The session will explore:

- Neurodiversity in practice - What do we mean by neurodiversity, and how might neurodiverse students present
- Practical teaching strategies
- Sensory & Attention Support - techniques for managing sensory overload and engaging students with short attention spans.
- Behaviour management that works for neurodiverse pupils.

Cost: Secondary SLA members two free places. Primary SLA members 1 free place. £20 per delegate non-members
