

Primary NQT Support and networking session Thursday 26th May 2022 12-4pm

The afternoon support session is aimed at primary teachers that qualified during covid (teachers in year 2 / 3 of their teaching career). The aim of the support session is to provide an opportunity to network with fellow colleagues to enable the sharing of experience and good practice and to focus on;

- Arrival 12 noon lunch provided
- 1 hour session with Sam Moinet from Student breakthrough focusing on wellbeing and resilience
- Practical ways to use adaptive teaching – high challenge – low ceilings so everyone can be successful
 - Opportunity for NQTs to network and share experience / techniques
 - Developing own classroom practice across a whole year
 - Managing time effectively
 - Action planning for developing own individual needs

The session will be delivered by Janet Dingvean, Rebecca Hughes and Sam Moinet from Student Breakthrough.
